CELEBRATING 90 YEARS OF MINISTRY IN MID-TOWN MEMPHIS

www.cccmemphistn.org

A Note from Pastor Bill Russell February 2013

As I prepared for my messages the past two weeks, both of which were drawn from 1st Corinthians 12, I became increasingly aware of how gifted Central really is. As Paul listed gifts in his letter to the people in Corinth, I thought about the gifts that our congregation has been given. As we begin to celebrate our 90th birthday, it is not by luck and good fortune that we remain alive and well as a community of faith. Rather, we are here because God has blessed this church from that Easter Sunday in 1923 until the present, and, just as the members of Central did before us, we continue to use those God-given gifts and abilities to minister to those around us. Certainly, today, we face challenges, but so did those who preceded us, and, with the grace of God and a lot of work, they met the challenges. As I look at our church, I am amazed by the talents and gifts that God has given to us. And, I am deeply awed by your willingness to use those talents for His church as we seek to overcome the challenges. As we prepare for our big birthday celebration, let us not dwell too long on the many past blessings and experiences we have enjoyed. Instead, as we enjoy the memories of the past, let us use the years that have gone before us as a lens through which to view the future as we look for new, innovative ways to serve and minister. We have been left a truly wonderful legacy; now we begin leaving one for those who follow us.

News from the Pews

As we all recovered from the stress and strain of the holiday season, getting back to a normal schedule in January was a welcome delight. Dennis and Katrinka Hall spent a good bit of the month (Dennis is still there) in Florida at their condo, and we are all anxious to hear about Nanda Noordermeer's fantastic month in her home country of Holland.

Many of our folks who have been ill are recovering nicely. Donnie Benton spent some time in the hospital, and is now back at home. Shula Shaw continues to gain her strength back, and Dot Olivi is healing and getting stronger every day. Bill Nelson is recovering from eye surgery, and our prayer is that all of these will continue to recover and will be back in worship soon.

If you haven't seen the new carpet in the parlor, stick your head in. That room is almost complete and when finished will be something everyone will be proud of. While you are nosing around, take a peek into the library and see the destruction that John Rainey has wrought. By the time of the birthday celebration, the library, too, will be a thing of beauty. As we hit full stride in working toward May 5th and the birthday celebration, there is much to do. Debra and Mark could use an octopus they need so many hands. If you want to help, just talk to one of them; they will put you to work.

Spotlight on Giving

On January 13th Katrinka Hall amused us all with the story of the three little boys discussing their dad's work. The first boy says "My dad writes some words on a piece of paper, calls it a poem and they give him $50" The second boy says "My dad writes some words on paper and calls it a song and they give him $100. the third boy says" I've got you both beat, my dad scribbles some words on a piece of paper and calls it a sermon and it takes eight men to collect all the money".

She also reminded us, with that what we give is tax deductible, cannot be taken with you and is considered, in the Bible, that the love of this is the root of all evil!

Commitment Sunday

We ask that our members and friend prayerfully consider their 2013 giving to Central and bring your Pledge Card with you to church to present at our offering service on Pledge Sunday, February 10.

Additional Pledge Cards are available in the Church Office.

Thoughts for the Day

People are funny; they want the front of the bus,
Middle of the road,
And back of the church.

If God is your Co-pilot, swap seats!

Valentine's Day

The Feast of Saint Valentine, is observed on February 14 each year. He was a priest in Rome who was martyred about AD 269. The most common legend associated with Saint Valentine was that he was imprisoned for performing weddings for soldiers who were forbidden to marry and for ministering to Christians, who were persecuted under the Roman Empire. During his imprisonment, he is said to have healed the daughter of his jailer Asterius. Legend states that before his execution he wrote "from your Valentine" as a farewell to her. Valentine's Day, as a day of romance, as we know it, can be dated back an English writer, Geoffrey Chaucer who, in 1382 wrote a poem including the lines "For this was on seynt Volantynys day Whan euey bryd comyth there to chese his make"

Buildings and Grounds

There's much to do, and to plan, for Central's 90th anniversary. When you invite friends, relatives, and other guests to your celebration, you want your "house" – that is, our "church" – to look its best. Beginning in mid-February, there will be do some "clean up" and "fix up" to do. If you are handy with a paint brush, if you can do some light yard work, or just if you just want to help, please feel free to jump in. There's plenty to do!

Here's the plan of attack:

Saturday, February 16th – clean the sanctuary and chapel from top to bottom. Time permitting, possible begin painting the north side of the sanctuary, and/or maybe the balcony area.

Some time in February – the Kate Mitchell library that is currently under "re" construction will need painting; possibly you can help with the new flooring.

Saturday, March 2nd and March 16th – weather permitting, attack the outside of the church. This includes pressure washing areas; painting the railing outside the chapel (if not already done); any plantings that needs done. Clean the Fellowship Hall area as needed.

There will be some additional projects to prepare for our 90th Anniversary, but for now, this is a good start. One or two people cannot do all the work. Therefore, when we celebrate Easter (March 31st) and our 90th Anniversary (May 5th), remember this: WYSIWYG (pronounced "Whizzy-Wig). It means "What You See Is What You Get"!

Mark Rutledge, Chairman

The following mission statement has been selected and approved for Central Christian Church:

OUR MISSION IS TO BE FAITHFUL FOLLOWERS OF JESUS, FOCUSING ON REACHING OUT INTO OUR COMMUNITY BY MINISTERING TO AND SERVING OTHERS, OFFERING AN INCLUSIVE AND LOVING CHURCH AND SHARING THE WORD OF GOD. WE LIVE OUT THE STATEMENT: "IT'S NOT WHAT YOU BELIEVE BUT IN WHOM YOU BELIEVE."

Linda Johnson, Board Secretary

Looking Back over the Past 90 Years

Your Editors have been in touch with Rena Smith, widow of the late Rev. Robert Smith, Minister at our Church from 1973 to 1978.

The following is an extract from an e-mail she sent us. "...while we were at Central Christian Church, I masterminded a huge project for Evelyn (Rev. Evelyn Cartmill). At that time, we all knew that she was leaving her regional staff position in Tennessee, to move to Kentucky with her new husband, Don. (He was such a dear man.) So I started a "Friendship Quilt" for her. I mailed detailed instructions, along with fabric pieces, to every Christian Women's Fellowship in the Tennessee Region. I don't remember the statistics now, but we did receive quilt squares from almost every church!

After the squares were sent back to me, I sewed them all together. There were some churches that didn't follow directions, and I had to "fix" their mistakes. Then I turned the quilt over to Central's quilting group to do the actual quilting. It was decided to hang it in the Fellowship Hall for all to view when the Regional Assembly was hosted by C.C.C. AND ... Evelyn was to be ordained during the Regional Assembly. It was quite a celebration. Evelyn remains a dear, dear friend, yet to this day!

It was my job to hand sew the binding on to the edge of the quilt. Meanwhile I was very pregnant with our second child. I finished the binding on Friday evening, April 14th, and went to the hospital on the following evening. Whew!!! Our daughter Stacey was born on Easter Sunday morning, April 16, 1977. Yes, Robert had lined up a friend to be in the pulpit, just in case! But Robert made it into the pulpit that morning with fifteen minutes to spare!"

New Year Prayer & Offertory from John Johnson

We are sharing via our Banner the prayer John Johnson presented as Worship Leader on the 1st Sunday of the New Year. It is so meaningful.

Father, we thank you for this opportunity to worship you in this New Year—the 90th year on this corner in Memphis. We pray that this will not just be a milestone in our history, but a continuation of our new beginnings program already begun as we seek to revitalize our church and our mission to serve you here. We pray that our efforts will bear fruit for you, and that many will be served.

Excerpts from his Offertory: On Epiphany Sunday, we need to take our lesson from the wise men that brought their gifts to the baby Jesus. They were the classic gift givers of all time. What can we learn from the wise men? As we begin our 90th year of worship here, we don't exactly know where we will be at the end of the year. But we know God is here, working powerfully in us. We need to give in faith and make the effort to worship the king. We are to worship him with a portion of all we have including time, talents and our money. Worship is a verb so we need to ask ourselves how we can worship him—in prayer, service and giving.

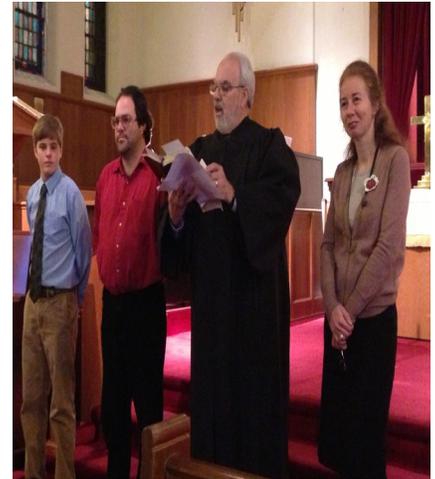

Message from Linda Johnson and Carol Scarberry

A reminder that the DWM Project to provide Cold and Flu remedies, for the Compassion Clinic, continues through February. Items needed are Band-Aids, Tylenol and other cold and flu medicines for Children, Cough Syrup, cough drops Kleenex, and Chap Sticks. Any other cold and flu items for Children would also be appreciated. You are also welcome to make a cash donation which will be applied for the purchase of these products.

On Sunday January 13th, in a very moving ceremony, we inducted two new Deacons, and one junior Deacon.

LENT AT CENTRAL

As we move into February, we head toward the season of Lent, perhaps the most hallowed period of the year for the Christian. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 13. After our regular supper, we will move into the sanctuary for a special Ash Wednesday service which will culminate with the imposition of ashes on the foreheads of those who wish. During Lent, on Wednesday evenings we will have guest speakers from around our city and from different denominations, sharing their Lenten thoughts and traditions. Lent is a special time, a time when we examine ourselves, a time, perhaps, when we admit our shortcomings. If you are not a Wednesday night regular, I hope you will come join us in this six week journey toward the cross. I know you will be blessed.

Bill Russell

Week of Compassion

Week of Compassion Collection 2013 will be February 24. Each week in February the Outreach Committee will have a Minute for Mission during Worship Service letting you know how your donations will help people both at home and around the world.

The theme of this Year's Week of compassion is Sharing Brings Joy to Us, to others and to God

Stop Press

The severe storm that came through on the night of January 29th tore down the guttering on the west side of the old church building. Mark Rutledge was able to effect a temporary repair using the string that Bill Russell used in last Sunday's message: "The string that binds us together". I don't think Bill meant us to take his message quite so literally.

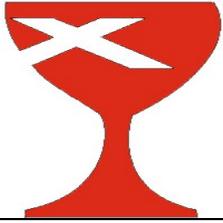

New Church Publications Booklets

Linda Johnson has produced a new booklet of Memphis area resources. It includes contact information for places like food pantries and clothing closets. A further booklet is in preparation giving details of government help agencies, shelters, etc. and will be a wealth of information. We have long wanted to have a resource booklet of current places where people in need can seek help and are so appreciative of Linda putting these booklets together. If you would like a copies, contact Linda, or the church office, and be sure to tell her thank you!

We also have a new booklet on Central highlighting who we are, our Ministry Opportunities and our new minister, Bill Russell. It is wonderful and we want everyone to have several copies to give to people you meet as you are inviting them to worship with the Central family. You may obtain copies from the church office.
