March 2016

A Note from our Pastor, Rev. Bill Russell

On Ash Wednesday, we began our Lenten journey with a wonderful service with our brothers and sisters from Kingsway and St. Francis. I truly hope that each of you is, if not memorizing Psalm 51, at least reading it so that the words of David become your words during Lent. Friday evening, March 4, we have been invited by Deacon Frank Williams to join the congregation at Immaculate Conception for a service explaining in detail the stations of the cross. The service begins at 5:30 and will last approximately 30 minutes. Following the service we are invited to a fish fry there. After the fish fry, Deacon Frank has volunteered to give us a behind-the-scenes tour of the cathedral. I did this a couple of years ago, and it is fascinating as well as very educational. Wednesday evenings during Lent we are having a video series, GLORY DAYS, led by Max Lucado. It leads us into the spirit of Lent in an unorthodox way, but is very good. Maundy Thursday we will combine worship and a meal with Kingsway Christian Church, Lindenwood and St. Francis, at Kingsway. The meal will be served at 6:15 and the service will begin at 7. I really am excited about this service and I hope many of you will attend. We will have rides available from Central and more information will be coming about that. Good Friday services will be with Lindenwood at 5:30, and again, more information will be forthcoming. All of this culminates with Easter Sunday morning. The men will be serving breakfast at 9:00, Sunday School will be at 10:00, and then we will celebrate the joy of the resurrection at 10:45. This will be a glorious day and my prayer is that every member of Central will be there for worship. Immediately following worship we will pause long enough to take a new congregational picture, so add that 15 minutes into your Easter schedule. Lent, Holy Week, and Easter are very special times; I hope that we all will all take advantage of the different opportunities to worship and draw nearer to our Lord. I'll see you Sunday.

Spotlight on Giving

Mark Rutledge shared the following Offertory thought at the service on February 28.

Several Sundays ago the word “expectation” was said several times during one of our worship services. For some reason this word has been buzzing around in my head and just won’t go away.

To me “expectation” means that something will be done or someone will do something – now or in the future.

On Sunday morning each one of us expects to come to Central to meet and greet our church family, to gather in the sanctuary to worship our God, to fellowship, and to remember our Savior, Jesus Christ. We expect to be warm in the winter and to be cool during those hot summer months. We take for granted (or expect) to have the lights on to help us see, plumbing that works, and a phone and the internet that we can communicate with our church family.

These “expectations” are what you expect from those who help take care and maintain our church, and is what is expected from all of us to meet our Outreach obligations. We don’t, and shouldn’t, expect other churches or organization to take care of our needs. But, what does God expect from you and me? This question would take a good hour – or more! – to answer. However, from reading our Bibles, from going to Sunday School, and from attending Sunday morning worship I feel sure that you already know the answer.

Memorial Gifts

During the sad times that surround any loss of a family member it is a comfort to know that individuals make generous gifts in honor of our loved ones. During February we received donations from Quay Butts and Shula and Russ Cangelosi in honor of Carol Scarberry’s sister, Marie White Furr.

Special Called Regional Assembly

Upon the retirement of Dr. Glen Stewart, a search committee was commissioned for the purpose of finding and recommending a new Regional Minister and President to lead the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Tennessee.

At meetings in February, the Tennessee Region Executive Committee and the entire Regional Board affirmed the Tennessee Region Executive Search committee's recommendation of Rev. Dr. Christal Williams as the Regional Minister and President of the Christian Church in Tennessee.

A called Regional Assembly will be held on Saturday, April 16, 2016 from 11:00 to 1:00 at Woodmont Christian Church in Nashville. The purpose of the Assembly is for the churches in the Tennessee region to affirm or deny the Call to Dr. Williams. Everyone is invited to attend and Central will send voting delegates.
