A Note from our Pastor, Rev. Bill Russell

In normal times, we would now be looking toward Palm Sunday, Holy Week, the gloom of the cross and, then, the glory of Easter Sunday. However, these are not normal times and we all recognize that. But the Easter story and its importance to all of humankind must not be overshadowed by the events of the present and the din of the world must not be allowed to drown out the message of God's love and salvation. As Christians, we cannot let the uncertainties and fears of today make us forget the promises which God has made to us about tomorrow. Friends, keep looking forward, maintain your Lenten regimen, draw closer to God. He WILL see us through this and the sun will rise on Easter morning. Psalm 46 gives such assurance and I urge you to read it several times between now and Easter. If you don't want to read it all, only read verse 10, just the first 8 words. Our God reigns. Easter is the proof. Have a blessed Holy Week and Easter. I'll see you in church. Hopefully, very soon.

SUPER TUESDAY BAKE SALE

Central Christian Church was a polling place for the Super Tuesday election on March 3. A very successful bake sale was held and the proceeds of $1225.50 will go to DWM to support their charitable programs. Many great bakers contributed their goods.

Quay Butts, Dorothy Feimster and Carol Scarberry represented the DWM. John Rainey, John Bennett and George Goodnight are members of the men's auxiliary. The auxiliary matched the money collected for the DWM.

HONORARIAM FOR SNACK BAG MINISTRY

Stan and Kathy Pruett, members of Kingsway, have made a very generous donation to the Snack Bag Ministry. We are grateful for their kind thought.

TDWM SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

This year's Spiritual Journey was held at New Direction Christian Church. Debra Goodnight led the day and Rev. Lauren Victoria Russell from New Direction was the Resource Leader. She was very inspiring.

Central Christian members Mary Artman, Linda Johnson and Carol Scarberry at lunch with Rev. Rachel Woodall.

Our friends at Kingsway with ladies from The Boulevard. A&R Bar-b-Que catered a wonderful meal.

These are half the donations that were donated by participants. Some congregations, including Kingsway, gave a monetary donation for HER Faith Ministries—an organization that provides support and services to homeless and needy women and children.
